

REFLECTIONS ON ART MAKING

Name: _____

When you make an artwork, what kinds of colors, shapes, line, or textures do you like to use?

When you make an artwork, what do you hope someone will see?

How do you feel while you are making art? How do you feel afterwards? How do you feel when someone sees it?

How would you describe your artwork to a stranger?

LET'S CRITIQUE

Critique our outdoor sculpture using Feldman's model of criticism.

DESCRIBE: Describe everything you see like colors, shapes, lines, textures, etc.

ANALYZE: What principles of design do you see? How do principles of design create meaning in the artwork?

INTERPRET: What do you think is the artist's intention based on the arrangement of elements?

CRITIQUE: Based on your observations, is this artwork successful?

REFLECT: If this was your artwork, what would you do differently?
